

The morning of June 10, 2014 a small amount of soap suds foamed out the overflow vent of a partially filled water truck loading brine water at the Hutchinson Pad. The spill was contained, surrounding soil was removed, and the incident reported to the DEP. The DEP declared it a non-reportable spill because the volume was less than 5 gallons liquid.